

Long story short, James has been a part of our cycling community here in Ft. Collins for a long time always participating and supporting others at the same time at all our local group rides and races. We miss him and his exuberant energy at the New Belgium Short Track and Cyclocross races, it is always a great treat when he is back in the Fort and makes an appearance. That's all I got for now.

--

Jason Trujillo
Send Town Bike Club