

"James has always put the sport first, and he wears the badge of mountain biking courage, culture and spirit better than anyone I have met in the last 40 years of riding fat tires."

- Roger Bird